

Queering the Lone Star State
Episode 4 Quiz

1. Richard Longstaff was an immigrant to the United States from what European country?
 - A. Germany
 - B. Spain
 - C. England
 - D. Poland

2. The men's clothing store that Richard Longstaff opened in Dallas was called:
 - A. The Union Jack
 - B. The British Bodega
 - C. The London Fog
 - D. The Big Ben

3. Richard Longstaff first thought about applying for US citizenship while he was helping organize:
 - A. A clothing drive for those experiencing homelessness
 - B. A voter registration drive
 - C. A union of automobile workers
 - D. A group vacation to Key West

4. In 1952, as a result of a new immigration act passed by Congress, this term became a code word for homosexual in immigration law:
 - A. Dependent personality
 - B. Histrionic personality
 - C. Antisocial personality
 - D. Psychopathic personality

5. This 1967 US Supreme Court case legitimated federal policies that excluded queer immigrants from entering the country:
 - A. Boutilier v. INS
 - B. Katz v. US
 - C. Loving v. Virginia
 - D. Rockefeller v. Wells

6. During his first interview with INS officials in 1977, Richard Longstaff's interviewer seemed to know that Longstaff was gay. How did Longstaff think he had gotten that information?

- A. By calling his mother
- B. By using his gaydar
- C. By obtaining information from police surveillance records
- D. By calling his employer

7. Federal judge Joe Estes ruled that Richard Longstaff had failed to establish good moral character in the United States because of his violation of this Texas law:

- A. The state gambling law
- B. The state homosexual conduct law
- C. The state drug possession law
- D. The state arson law

8. After a federal court ruled that Richard Longstaff had been ineligible to enter the United States in 1965, the INS revoked Longstaff's:

- A. Driver's license
- B. YMCA membership
- C. Bicycle privileges
- D. Green card

9. In 2016, Richard Longstaff closed his clothing stores in Dallas and Houston and retired to:

- A. Florida
- B. Nevada
- C. New Jersey
- D. North Carolina

10. In a final effort to obtain US citizenship, Richard Longstaff sought a presidential pardon from this president:

- A. Ronald Reagan
- B. Bill Clinton
- C. George W. Bush
- D. Barack Obama